British / Maltese

Program Lead/Facilitator Dijun Way

My Why:

By empowering youth with knowledge, resources and support, we can create a safer and healthier future for families and communities. Let's build a world where every child can thrive, free from the grips of domestic violence!

Timeline:

Born in England. Joined the British Army at the age 16 to 21 years old, travelled different parts of the world until landed in Australia in 2011. Since being in Australia I lived in Sydney, Alice Springs & Darwin. I have worked primarily in youth coordination and case manager roles.

Hobbies:

Music (DJ/Producing), boxing, fitness & health, watching mixed martial arts.

Passions:

My family, travel, investment, and growth.

The only way we can change is to be real with ourselves.

Facilitator Dijun Way

My Why:

Is to help our mob understand that family domestic violence, isn't okay. Educating our young people on what is right and what's wrong. Acknowledging that past trauma and intergenerational is a key factor.

Timeline:

Study: Iona Presentation College
Perth, Edith Cowan University.
Work: Babagurra, Deadly Sista Girlz,
AIEO Broome Primary School, Cable
Beach Primary School.
Currently Dijun Way Co-facilitator.

Hobbies:

Spending time with my son/family, camping, fishing, football, netball, and the gym.

Passions:

Being a mum, family, and travel, study, youth work.
