

Engagement

By engaging with these modules participants will gain valuable knowledge and skills that navigate healthy relationships, understand the importance of consent, explore dynamics of emotions and become positive role models in their families and communities.

Contact Us

Family Domestic Violence Teams
Team Leader
Nic Glauser: 0429 484 859

Family Violence Teams
Cultural Guidance Worker
Nelson Bieundurry: 0400 194 228

Family Domestic Violence Teams
Coordinator
Francis Fernandez: 0437 358 837

Dijun Way Program Lead & Co-facilitator
Dominic Vella: 0474 252 375

Dijun Way Co-facilitator
Sarani Bin Bakar: 0477 010 065

Dora Street
Rear of Mamabulanjin Aboriginal Coporation
Broome WA 6725

Supported by

Government of Western Australia
Department of Communities

STRONG Families communities

Mensoutreach.org.au

DIJUN WAY WORKSHOPS

Dating

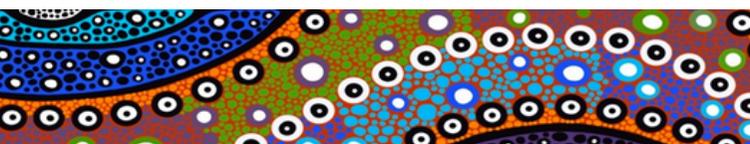

Relationships

Emotions

Sex & Consent

Masculinity

Role Modelling

About our program.

Dijun Way YoungN Deadly is a youth program that is focused on promoting awareness of family domestic violence.

Who is it for?

Dijun Way program is for individuals aged 12-18 years old.

What can you expect?

The program consists of six modules that cover important topics such as dating, relationships, masculinity, sex and consent, emotions, and role modelling. The program timing and activity base will focus on the specific needs and dynamics of the group.

Through workshop delivery, social media and radio, the program seeks to empower communities by equipping them with the tools and understanding necessary to prevent family domestic violence and promote a culture of respect, equality and safety.

Servicing
BROOME | KIMBERLEY

Facebook

Instagram

